

Sleeping Sickness Epidemic Sweeps California Valleys

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A sleeping sickness epidemic is creeping northward up California's central valleys, borne on the wings of the tiny female mosquito.

Already the Encephalitis has claimed 30 lives and nearly 500 have been reported stricken, the State Health Department reported.

Twelve died within the last week. Doctors are powerless to check the disease. There is no known vaccine for humans.

Poison Spray Used

The only hope is to kill off the mosquitoes. Hundreds of men are spraying 276 towns in the valley lowlands and then laying down quarter-mile-wide barriers of poison residue spray around them.

The female Culex tarsalis mosquito—common in California—carries the disease from birds and fowl to horses and humans. It is not carried from horses to humans.

A total of 499 cases have been reported to the State Health Department, but only 315 have been clinically diagnosed as encephalitis.

Victims Die Quickly

New Jets Given Carrier Tests

By VERN HAUGHLAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy disclosed today that four new jet fighter planes have been given their first tests aboard a carrier.

Three of them—the single-engine XFJ-2 Fury and the twin-engine Chance-Vought F7U-3—are those which Navy Secretary Kimball recently described as new Navy planes which will be "better than the Russian MIG."

When and if the three are ordered into production, they will be the first of the Navy's swept-wing carrier-based fighters.

They are the first to have low speed stability required for landing in limited space, along with the high speed capability that swept-back wings provide.

The fourth is the twin-engine, straight-wing F2H-3, a new model of the McDonnell Banshee.

All are faster, more maneuverable and more powerful than types now in use.

Grand Jury Indicts Detroit Banker Who Was $49,000 Short

DETROIT (AP)—Charles W. Smith, the customer relations man who confessed to embezzling nearly $49,000 from a branch of the National Bank of Detroit today was indicted by a federal grand jury.

The indictment listed eight counts which could jail the 32-year-old Air Force veteran for a maximum of 40 years.

The indictment mentioned only $12,900, the amount Smith is accused of absconding with on the day he disappeared, July 3.

Captured last Saturday, Smith is held under $10,000 bond at Kingman, Ariz. He blamed gambling and subsequent efforts to "cover up" for his losses.

Excited Fisherman Falls In, Drowns

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—The excitement of catching a fish was blamed today for the drowning of Lloyd Nichols, 64.

Nichols and a friend, Von Meek, 30, were fishing from a boat in Sonoma Lake five miles south of here yesterday. One of the men hooked a fish. Both got excited and stood up in the boat. It overturned.

Nichols, unable to swim, went down. Meek held onto the boat until another fisherman rescued him.

Auto Derails Train Near Racine; Motorist Killed, 65 Injured

RACINE, Wis. (AP)—A high-speed electric Chicago-to-Milwaukee train hit a car and jumped the rails near here late yesterday. The motorist was killed and 65 train passengers were injured.

Hiram M. Bryant of Waukegan, Ill., Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee motorman, said his five-car commuter train was traveling at 75 miles an hour when it hit the car at the Chickory road crossing.

"There wasn't a chance for me to try to hit the brake," he said. "We hit him a second after I saw him."

One car was flung flat on its side in a field. Two others tilted onto their sides. The other two remained upright.

The train ripped up several hundred feet of tracks and knocked out the line's electric power in that section for three hours, temporarily stranding thousands of commuters.

The driver, whose car was ripped to shreds of twisted metal, was Episcopo Leal, 31, of Racine, a foundry worker.

Sixteen persons remained in hospitals. The others were released after first aid.

Schools Of U. S. Caught In Vice

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's schools were reported today to be caught in a vise—more pupils on one side and fewer teachers and less space on the other.

The National Education Association (NEA) told of the double-squeeze in a report on a survey among 4,372 school systems in cities of 2,500 population and upward.

The NEA said replies from 1,270 of the school systems listed their major problems as mounting enrollment, a shortage of teachers, scarcity of building materials and inflationary costs.

The report said the nation's defense effort apparently is the major cause of the shortage of qualified teachers. It said teacher turnover has increased generally.

About 47 per cent of the systems covered in the survey said needed building projects, to accommodate a total of 343,000 pupils, were being delayed by lack of funds. It said materials shortages or high costs have halted planned building, to house 115,315 other pupils, in 162 school systems.

While financing was ranked almost equal to housing as a school problem, the report said indications were that local support of education was in no serious decline.

Two Presidential Candidates Alike On Farm Policies

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farmers may find little difference in the views of the two major presidential candidates on the question of price supports for agricultural commodities.

Statements made by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican nominee, and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic standard bearer, at news conferences yesterday indicated that their positions on this issue, when finally outlined, may be quite similar.

No Tampering

Eisenhower, at Kansas City, said in reply to a query that if he were elected there would be no tampering with the price support law.

He said he had received no suggestions that supports be lowered.

Stevenson ruled out the controversial Brannan Plan which Eisenhower and the GOP national platform had sought to tie to the Democrats. The Illinois governor at Minocqua, Wis., said in effect that the Republicans, in trying to make the Brannan Plan an issue, were barking up the wrong tree.

He said this plan was obsolete, that it had not been endorsed by his party's platform nor recommended by its candidates.

Present Law Endorsed

Thus the statements of the rival candidates were open to the interpretation that both endorse the existing farm price support law.

This law requires that basic crops—wheat, corn, cotton, tobacco, rice and peanuts—be supported at not less than 90 per cent of parity—the level in effect this year—during the next two crop years.

It was passed shortly before Congress adjourned last month, with the approval of Democrats and Republicans alike. It has the effect of setting aside, for the next two years, a system of flexible supports which had been criticized by President Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Brannan.

The Democratic platform promises to "continue" the 90 per cent minimum supports beyond the two-year period. Eisenhower's statement that there would be no reduction in price supports could be interpreted as meaning that he too would advocate their continuance.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices, declared by law to be equally fair to producers and to those who buy their products.

Potter Will Speak

Congressman Potter will address the fair patrons at the grandstand Saturday afternoon and again in the evening. He will arrive from Detroit by plane Saturday noon.

Republican candidates for county and state offices also will be on hand and will be introduced. John Root, Escanaba attorney, candidate for county prosecutor, will introduce Congressman Potter.

Attendance at the fair has been running consistently higher than previous years, according to fair officials. Although it is impossible to make an accurate count because of the free gate, grandstand receipts and receipts from the fair rides and shows, usually regarded as a good barometer of

Sparkman Ends Old Home Tour

By LEROY SIMMS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Sen. John Sparkman, Democratic nominee for vice president, ended a four-day home state tour here with the assertion that the Republicans have only one campaign issue—"that it's time for a change."

The Alabama senator said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has said "he's going to keep all those social and economic gains of the last 20 Democratic years, and he's going to do it better."

Sparkman ended his homecoming tour at a dinner here last night. Sparkman, the first man from the Deep South to win a place on the Democratic ticket in 100 years, also emphasized what he called "the end of the political isolation of the South."

He said his nomination on the ticket headed by Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois sprang partly from the campaigns of Georgia's Sen. Richard B. Russell and Tennessee's Sen. Estes Kefauver for president.

"They proved it possible for a Southerner to run for president," he said. "Their campaign did much to restore the South to the place in the Democratic party which had been lost."

"The South now has the opportunity to demonstrate for all time its proper place of leadership in the Democratic party," Sparkman declared. "I'm confident the South is going to present a united front for the Democrats next November."

McCarthy Lines Up Slander Suit

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pre-trial testimony in the two million dollar libel-slander suit brought by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) against Sen. Benton (D-Conn.) shifts tomorrow to Wheeling, W. Va.

There, lawyers for the battling senators have scheduled an examination of four prospective witnesses.

McCarthy accuses Benton of defaming him with false charges of fraud, perjury and deceit in a move to have the Wisconsin lawmaker expelled from the Senate.

Benton has declared he will base his defense largely on efforts to prove that his accusations, voiced against McCarthy before a Senate rules subcommittee, are well-founded.

Tomorrow's hearing will deal with Benton's charge that McCarthy committed perjury when he denied under oath that he told a Wheeling audience in a speech on Feb. 9, 1950, that he possessed a list of 205 persons "known to the secretary of state (Dean Acheson) as being members of the Communist party and who nevertheless are still working and shaping policy in the State Department."

Benton's lawyers called four news and radio men to the Wheeling hearing in an announced effort to show that McCarthy did make that statement in the 1950 speech.

Detroit Gets Back Home After 7 Years As Soviet Prisoner

BERLIN (AP)—A 60-year-old American who lived through World War II in Hitler's Germany and then spent seven years in Soviet zone concentration camps will be able to return to the U. S. soon.

The U. S. consulate here announced last night that Charles A. Noble, formerly of Detroit, Mich., had been granted a new American passport enabling him to get back home at last.

Noble was caught in Germany by the outbreak of the war. After the fighting ended, he was arrested by the Reds in Dresden and was only released by the East zone people's police on July 4.

Steelworkers Raise President Murray's Salary To $40,000

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The CIO United Steelworkers has given its president, Philip Murray, a pay raise from $25,000 to $40,000.

Other top officials of the million-member union also got raises from the USW executive board.

James G. Thimmes, vice president, and David J. McDonald, secretary-treasurer, each was boosted $10,000 to $25,000 a year.

Murray, who draws no salary as president of the CIO, will pay $12,956 a year income tax on the $40,000.

Blonde, 28, Still Woos Youth, 17

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A revealing photo, a lipstick imprint on the back, and a note to "blue eyes" have sent Mrs. Virginia LeTourneau, 28, back to jail.

Mrs. LeTourneau, the blond divorcee who admitted taking a boy 11 years her junior on a 10,000 mile trip, tried to get a juvenile hall jailer to take the picture and the note to the boy, Jimmy Sherwin, 17.

The photo was of Mrs. LeTourneau in a sun dress. Written on the back of it was, "I love you. So sweet." A lipstick imprint was nearby.

The note read: "Darling, hold out. I love you, Jimmy, more every day. Don't let anyone tell you different. Life without you is terrible. I love you, blue eyes."

Superior Judge William B. Neely took one look at the photo and note and ordered Mrs. LeTourneau back to jail. She had been at liberty on $1,000 bail pending a probation hearing after she pleaded guilty to contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Juvenile authorities had indicated they would release Jimmy if he and the blond mother of a 12-year-old son agreed not to see each other again. Now they weren't so sure.

Former Legislator, Indicted For Bribes, Carl F. Delano Dies

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Carl F. Delano, one of 13 Michigan legislators indicted by the Carr-Sigler grand jury on bribery charges, died today after a long illness.

Death came to the 61-year-old former state representative and state senator at Borgess hospital at 12:30 a. m. He was taken there yesterday after a stroke.

Delano, convicted in 1945 of conspiracy to corrupt the legislature, served only eight months of a three-to-five year prison term. He was paroled in 1949 because of ill health. All of that time he had spent in the prison hospital.

His health had been poor since then.

Revenue Bureau Hauls In $64,971,210,298 For 12-Month Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—A record $64,971,210,298 was collected by the Internal Revenue Bureau in taxes and social security contributions during the fiscal year which ended June 30.

This was about 14½ billion dollars more than in the previous 12 months. In addition, federal agencies other than the revenue bureau took in $2,364,500,000 for fiscal 1952.

In the 1953 fiscal year, which started July 1, President Truman has estimated collections will total about 75 billion dollars.

These gross figures do not include billions of dollars refunded to taxpayers or set aside for social security payments. Refunds and set-asides in fiscal 1952 cut the figure about $5,871,000,000. The estimate for fiscal 1953 is expected to drop about $6,200,000,000 when refunds and set-asides are counted.

Eisenhower's Views On War May Bring Kickback In G. O. P.

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

DENVER (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's sharp disagreement with Korean War policy views voiced by some Republicans raised a question today whether he might get a kickback within the party ranks.

The general coupled the criticism with an assertion that "really terrible blunders" brought on the war—a direct jab at the Truman administration.

But he also said at a meeting of Midwestern Republican leaders at Kansas City, Kan., yesterday that: 1. Because of the "terrible blunders," this country had no choice but to intervene when the Communists attacked the South Koreans in June, 1950. If it had not done so, the general added, "we would already be involved in a very much greater and more serious thing than we are today."

Had No Choice

But he said that "does not excuse the people that allowed the conditions to arise that brought

Vessels Collide In Pacific Fog

LONG BEACH (AP)—The Swedish motorship Stratus and the American steamship Coos Bay collided in fog off the Southern California coast early today, but both reported no casualties.

Although part of the Coos Bay crew took to lifeboats, a Navy crash boat which reached the scene reported neither ship sinking although there was a 15-foot hole in the port side of Coos Bay. Its engine room was flooded.

The ships collided six miles East of Anacapa Island offshore from Ventura, Calif.

The Stratus reported it would stand by the Coos Bay until two tugs arrive to take her in tow. Then the Swedish vessel planned to proceed under her own power to the Los Angeles harbor, despite a damaged bow.

British Fliers Will Train German Pilots For Jet Fighter Duty

LONDON (AP)—The London Daily Herald says plans are under way for the Royal Air Force to give jet fighter training to German pilots, many of them veterans of the wartime enemy Luftwaffe.

The paper said the Germans will be trained for the air support West German divisions of the projected West European army. No bomber training will be given, the paper reported.

Previous reports from Germany have said that the West German government plans an air force of 1,500 planes if German rearmament is approved by the Bonn Parliament and the Western Allies.

U. P. Dairymen Feted At Banquet

As a tribute to their outstanding work in steadily increasing the production of milk from their herds, the dairy farmers of the Upper Peninsula were honored Wednesday night at a Dairymen's Banquet in the 4-H dining hall on the U. P. State Fair grounds.

Pointing to "the wonderful dairy show" they brought to the Fair, featured speaker Charles Figy, Michigan's commissioner of agriculture, said that the U. P. dairy farmers have done a superb job of raising fine milk cattle in spite of mares in a near-perfect weather picture.

"On the whole," he said, "you are blessed with weather conditions that make the Upper Peninsula an excellent dairyland."

The rise in dairy production in the U. P. is not yet leveling off, the farmers were told by George McIntyre, deputy commissioner of agriculture, who said that on indications of improved records, dairying is "due for expansion" here.

Green Pastures Award

Three achievement awards were presented at the banquet, including the Green Pastures trophy, which is given to the farmer with the best grazing land.

This year's award was presented by William Cargo, crops specialist of the Michigan State College extension farm, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson of Houghton county for getting a score of 92 in the contest.

He attributed the high quality of their pasture land to the use of phosphates and potash in the soil and to their practice of yearly rotating cattle on the fields.

Two other awards, for the best county herds of 1951 and 1952, were presented by Fair secretary John MacInnis to Carl Hansen and Andrew Benson who accepted the trophies for the Jersey breeders of Menominee county.

Master of ceremonies Charles Little, dairy specialist at the MSC experimental station at Chatham, announced the winners of the high production contest of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association. The herds of the winning farmers ranked highest in their counties in butterfat content of the milk produced.

4-H And Gov. Williams Share Spotlight At Fair

Members of Upper Peninsula 4-H Clubs and Michigan's Gov. Williams shared the U. P. State Fair spotlight at Escanaba yesterday.

Attendance at the fair, which has been good since the Tuesday opening, was increased yesterday by the closing of Escanaba business houses for the afternoon and evening.

Gov. Williams, with recently-appointed Supreme Court Justice Clark Adams, arrived by plane in Escanaba about 2 p. m. yesterday. They came immediately to the fair grounds where the governor and his party reviewed the 4-H Club parade.

Menominee Parade Winner

Ben Westrate, Marquette, assistant state 4-H leader, identified the 4-H Club parade entrants, and 4-H agents introduced the 4-H members from the counties participating.

Menominee county, Upper Peninsula's leading dairy county, topped the 4-H dairy parade to win first place. Dickinson county placed second, Houghton third, Iron fourth, and Alger county fifth.

The judges awarded Baraga county top spot for its parade float. Marquette placed second, Iron third, Houghton fourth and Chippewa fifth.

Purpose of the parade is to encourage the 4-H members to make a colorful and attractive exhibit of their work to the public.

Governor Lauds 4-H

Ben Miller, Houghton, member of the U. P. State Fair Board, introduced the governor and his party assembled on the stage in front of the grandstand.

"I appreciate the opportunity to see all of this fine 4-H Club work," said Gov. Williams. "These boys and girls are really promoting the best interests of agriculture in the Upper Peninsula. It is satisfying to know that our agricultural future is firmly placed in good hands."

The governor also directed attention to the economic survey of the Upper Peninsula now under way, which he described as beneficial not only to the U. P. but to the entire state.

Candidates Presented

Miller introduced other members of the governor's party seated on the stage, mostly Democratic candidates for public office in the Nov. 4 election. They included: Nicholas P. Chapekis, William E. Miron, Mrs. Ann Villeneuve, William Butler, Einar E. Erlandson.

Also presented were Miss Dolores Toyra of Manistique, U. P. State Fair queen, and her attendants, Miss Joan DeShambo of Escanaba and Miss Jane Kaiser of Houghton.

In closing his introductions, Miller directed attention to Gov. Williams and described him as "a

The group also will present seven vocalists, including girls' quartet, two female soloists and a male soloist. And there will be a 16 voice chorus, plus individual specialty acts.

The Uren Sisters will be featured in several vocal numbers and the 16 voice chorus will present special arrangements by Fred Waring including two popular numbers, "Ghost Riders in the Sky" and "All The Things You Are." Other numbers are "The Lord's Prayer" and "Battle Hymn of The Republic."

The Four Men of Distinction who have gained considerable fame in the Upper Peninsula as a result of their participation in Barber Shop concerts will present their hilarious pantomime acts as great governor, a great man, and a man who will also make a great president of the United States."

Dinner and Baseball

Yesterday evening Gov. Williams dined with 4-H Club members at their annual banquet in the 4-H dining hall on the fair grounds; and later appeared at Memorial Field to toss the first ball to open the Little League championship game.

Gov. Williams was presented again at the night show in front of the grandstand.

In this appearance he directed attention to the progress of the Mackinac Straits Bridge Authority in planning construction of a bridge to connect the Upper and Lower Peninsulas.

Yesterday afternoon the Staples Rodeo company presented a "rough ridin' and fancy-ropin'" show, and the Gertrude Avery Revue and 4-H Style Revue were on the evening program.

another feature of the program. Marlene Munson, a 12-year-old acrobatic dancer, and LeRoy Schmidt, a unicycle artist and juggler, will also be featured in specialty acts.

John O'Brien, a trumpet player who played with Ted Fio Rito's orchestra will play a trumpet solo, "Black Velvet."

The entire performance is under the direction of Dan Croci of Iron Mountain. The show will be presented Sunday evening at 8:30 p. m., in front of the grandstand at the Upper Peninsula State Fair. In the event of rain, it will be transferred to the Junior High School auditorium.

Sheriff Tickets Two Drivers After Minor Collision

Two tickets were issued by the sheriff's officers to both drivers involved in an automobile collision on US 2-41 near the E. & L. S. underpass south of the Escanaba River early this morning.

Officials reported that Paul J. Provo, 20, of 800 Stephenson Ave., drove his car across the center line on the upgrade of the road at that point and ran into the side and rear fender of a taxi driven by Harlan J. Peterson of Escanaba, Rte. 1.

Provo was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way and Peterson for failure to have a chauffeur's license in his possession. The accident happened at 12:45 a. m., today.

In an auto mishap yesterday, Norbert Carignan of Cornell side-swiped a car driven by Thomas Anderson of Cornell as he attempted to pass a farm vehicle on county road 426 three miles south of Cornell.

State police reported considerable damage was caused to both cars. No one was injured and no tickets were issued.

Time of the mishap was 10:20 a. m., Thursday.

James Frenn Hurt In Car Collision

James J. Frenn, 52, of 1118 Second Ave. S., was injured at 8:58 a. m. today in a car collision at the intersection of Ninth St. and Second Ave. S. and is receiving treatment in St. Francis Hospital.

Thrown forward by the impact, Frenn suffered a cut forehead, a mild concussion, and some chest injury. He is resting comfortably and his condition is not believed to be serious.

Escanaba police who investigated the accident issued tickets to drivers of both cars.

Thomas W. Stodden, McAllen, Texas, was ticketed for not wearing glasses as required under the terms of his driving license; and Frenn for failure to stop in the cleared clear distance ahead.

Finished Airstrip Saves Indian Child

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. — Indian trader Sammy Day told Navajos at isolated Pine Springs that if they'd help him build an airstrip it might some day save a life.

The Indians finished the work yesterday. A half hour later a 4-year-old Anderson Six got an orange peel caught in his throat and was strangled.

James Bickel, commander of the Navajo Civil Air Patrol squadron stationed at Window Rock, flew to the newly completed airstrip and removed the child to the Ft. Defiance, Ariz., Medical Center.

Doctors said the child was out of danger.

Central Methodist Church Will Commemorate Its 75th Anniversary This Weekend

Central Methodist church of Escanaba, First Avenue South and S. 13th Street, will commemorate its diamond anniversary, 75 years, next weekend, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 23 and 24.

An anniversary dinner will be held Saturday evening at 7:00 at the Sherman Hotel, and an anniversary service will be held Sunday morning at 11:00 at the church. A dedication service is scheduled for 3:00 p. m., Sunday to be followed by a Fellowship hour at 4:15 sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

Organized In 1877

Bishop Marshall B. Reed, bishop of the Detroit area of the Methodist church, will be the principal speaker at the anniversary dinner Saturday and will give the sermon at the anniversary service Sunday. He also will give the dedication address Sunday afternoon.

Central Methodist church was organized as the Swedish Methodist Episcopal church in August, 1877. The first pastor was the Rev. A. R. Gustafson, who began religious work among the Scandinavian people of this community while he maintained headquarters at Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. Mr. Gustafson organized the Escanaba church and when the Swedish Conference was organized, he became a member of the conference. The church at Escanaba likewise joined the Swedish Conference and was a part of the conference until 1942.

Ground for a church and parsonage was acquired at First Avenue South and Ninth Street and the first church and parsonage were constructed on that site. The first parsonage was built in 1890.

Location Changed

For some reason, obscured by the passing of years, the church building was removed to the corner of S. 14th Street and Third Avenue South in 1893. It remained on this location until 1899 when the present site was acquired and a new church building constructed.

The Rev. Andrew Anderson, who became pastor of the church in 1898, conducted the fund-raising program that made possible the erection of the new church in 1899. The parsonage was removed from South Ninth Street to its present site during the pastorate of the Rev. Anderson and with some remodeling has served as the pastor's dwelling for 59 years.

Church Remodeled

Religious services were conducted in the Swedish language from the time the church was organized until 1935. The new generation of church members, however, were accustomed to use the English language and in 1935 the Swedish language was discontinued for church services and the name of the church was changed to Central Methodist church. It became a member of the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist church in 1942, when the merger of the major Methodist bodies was consummated.

The remodeling of the church was begun in the fall of 1950 when a choir loft and divided chancel was installed and the kitchen modernized.

Remodelling of the front entrance has just been completed. The program for the anniversary banquet Saturday night follows:

Rock Labor Day Festival Is Real Community Event

Rock—The Rock Lions Club annual Labor Day Festival, plans for which are nearing completion, probably is one of the folkliest celebrations taking place in this community during the year. In a "farewell summer-welcome autumn" atmosphere folks gather from around the neighboring communities, cities and even drive in from nearby states to join in the festivities which are held at the school grounds on Labor Day.

Here old friends meet, some new acquaintances are made, and people in general forget all differences as they mingle together and participate in the various contests. There is no age limit at this yearly gathering and even the town's tiniest citizens survey the doings from their carriages.

Ten years ago the local Lions put on their first festival and each year this gala celebration has attracted increasing numbers. The big parade in the morning opens the events of the day and is climaxed by a dance held at the Riento Hall.

Two months in advance of the date the Rock Lions are making plans for Labor Day. This year is no exception. However there appears to be an added spark to the energetic interest possessed by the Lions as they add the finishing touches to their carefully laid plans. And if the noticeable anxiety of the members is any indication of a successful presentation, this year's attraction will be bigger and better than any in the past.

Wheelchair, Aid For Fire Victims, Asked By Red Cross

The Delta County Chapter, American Red Cross, today appealed for articles which will aid a handicapped person and an elderly couple whose home was destroyed by fire.

Needed is a wheelchair for a legless person, who will be home from the hospital in about two weeks; and an oil burner and household furniture and clothing for the elderly couple whose home at Fayette was destroyed by fire.

Persons who have such articles are asked to contact the Red Cross office, phone 97.

Improved Quality Features Fair's Exhibit Of Art

The growing importance of painting in the Upper Peninsula is quite evident at the Fair this year, in the improved quality of the entries in the art department. Growth and development is shown by the more experienced contributors and many new names are noted. Just as interesting as the pictures by those who have met with some notice in the art world, is the work of the untrained.

Appreciation of the local scene is one of the dominant features of the exhibit that year. It is attested by the many landscapes showing the beautiful countryside to be found here in the Upper Peninsula. There are representations of mines, lakes, hills, trees, boats and farms.

On view is a worthy collection of are by the junior artists, which includes work done by those 19 or younger. This is a very popular corner, with old and young alike. It gives these young people a chance to see their work hung with that of others, and to observe ways of preparing their pictures for exhibition, as well as to compare their quality.

There is a great variety in the use of paint in the show. Some paintings are in oil, of heavy impasto, others smooth and thin. There are vigorous water colors accented with India ink applied with a brush. There are rich pastels and soft pencil drawings. In water color there are examples of the dry and wet techniques.

Discussions are heard among the observers every day as to the relative merits of individual pictures and ways of painting. In looking through the show it becomes evident that there can be many good ways of painting and that the best picture are those which are strongly individual.

Be Sure You Understand Issues Of Reapportionment This Fall!

BETWEEN now and the November election, there will be so much said and written about all of the various issues and the various candidates for the many offices to be contested that the voters will be campaign-weary when they finally get to the election polls.

It is well now, far in advance of the heavy campaign cannonading, for the voters of the Upper Peninsula to get a thorough understanding of two extremely important reapportionment amendment issues that will be on the constitutional amendment ballot in the November election.

The "Balanced Legislature" reapportionment proposal has been designated Amendment No. 3 on the amendment ballot. This is the proposal that Upper Peninsula voters should support if they hope to retain any semblance of voting strength in the Michigan Legislature. Vote "Yes" for amendment No. 3.

The "Balanced Legislature" proposal is patterned after the U. S. House of Representatives and U. S. Senate in the U. S. Congress. Representation in the House is determined by population but representation in the Senate is determined by area.

French Franc Takes Another Dip

THE French franc has taken another dip, and with it dip the hopes that the Pinay government is long for this world. He's not out yet, but the fiscal handwriting is on the wall.

The latest dodo of the mercurial franc accompanied warnings by the French defense minister that France was in for more economic trouble if she didn't get more orders for military goods from the United States.

France had been counting on more than $600 million worth of such orders, but it looks like she will get less than a third of that.

That may well mean that France will have to cut her armament program, which in turn will mean a lot of workers thrown out of jobs. The thought of that doesn't help any the Pinay government's chances of remaining in power.

But Pinay, himself, who has based his entire government program on a reasonable, middle-of-the-road approach, has middle-of-the-road answers to his latest difficulties.

If more money is not forthcoming from America, he says, then that is that and nothing can be done about it. So by more economies here and there—he named them—France might still be able to make it.

And as if the Pinay government wasn't having enough trouble, its opposition will be drumming up all the criticism it can think of between now and the next meeting of Parliament in October.

Pinay, whose government gamble was to somehow stabilize the franc and to extract a little more from this country than has thus far been forthcoming, could of course solve the whole thing by either raising taxes or making a reasonably thorough collection of those already in existence, but there is no chance of it. That would cause another government upheaval, sure enough.

Merry-Go-Round

SENATOR BLAIR MOODY

(Note to Editors: While Drew Pearson is on a brief vacation, the Washington Merry-Go-Round is being written by several distinguished guest columnists, today's being Sen. Blair Moody, Democrat, of Michigan.)

DETROIT—The best way for the American people to get the full, unvarnished picture of the real issues of the presidential campaign, in my judgment, would be a series of debates on television and radio between Governor Stevenson and General Eisenhower.

This modern innovation would give the voters an opportunity to decide directly which candidate would provide the country with more competent leadership in this moment of history when our future is so dangerously at stake.

It would offer a universal education on the problems of our nation and the world, never before approached.

It would draw the issues between the parties on the level of fact, not smear.

It would give the people a chance to "know" their next President—his personality, his intellect, and his grasp of public affairs.

It would provide both candidates an equal crack at what doubtless would be the largest audience of all time, without forcing either to raise huge sums of money for the privilege of presenting their views to the people.

And it would knock the ex parte bunk out of the campaign at the very top level.

HIGH-LEVEL CAMPAIGN

If the famous general from Kansas is matched with the great statesman from Illinois for an hour each week, perhaps from mid-September through October, the people will make the right decision November 4, and a new, high pattern will have been set for the future functioning of our democracy.

This suggestion was advanced by the writer on People's Platform, a Columbia Broadcasting System radio discussion with Sen. Allen J. Ellender, of Louisiana, on July 27, the day after the Democratic convention adjourned.

From CBS President Frank Stanton comes a letter of interest, which also cites a possible obstacle. Stanton writes:

"I am in wholehearted agreement. It is difficult to conceive of any method which would more surely contribute to the Democratic processes of full and informed participation in the election by voters."

But Stanton points out that the federal communications act requires an even distribution of public-service time not alone between Democratic and Republican parties but, according to present FCC interpretations, among splinter parties as well.

"While we are in full sympathy with the principle of fairness which Sec. 315 (A) is intended to vindicate," Stanton writes, "we believe its apparent frustration of so desirable a result as you suggest is the best evidence of its fatal error."

"Yet the broadcaster's license—that is, his right to stay in business—is dependent on conforming with the act. This, I believe, warrants re-examination of Sec. 315 (A) with a view toward repealing it and, perhaps, substituting some less rigid provision which would remove the roadblocks to broadcasts so obviously in the public interest."

Stanton suggests action in the next Congress which would "permit radio and television to play the vital role of which they are capable."

COULD BE SPONSORED COMMERCIALLY

Perhaps some change in law is in order. But when Congress meets, this campaign will be over. An informal check at FCC indicates a more immediate way might be found around the obstacle.

There are already a number of nationally televised, nationally sponsored programs which specialize in precisely this type of matching of facts, wits, and grasp of the issues. Nearly all senators and many congressmen have participated.

While the standard 30-minute time often runs out before issues have been adequately clarified, a series of hour-long discussions, running over perhaps six weeks, could be conducted with complete fairness.

It would be hard to imagine that the managers of any of these programs would object to finding themselves suddenly with two such distinguished participants. A rescheduling putting two such 30-minute pieces end-to-end, to provide the full hour, should not be insuperable. It would, of course, be a windfall for the sponsors of the programs, who, under this system, would pick up the check, but no larger a check than they meet weekly anyhow for less distinguished guests.

The nation has never forgotten the Lincoln-Douglas debates, though in proportion few could hear them. In the television age, we all could look in. An Eisenhower-Stevenson series of radio-TV debates could be the deciding factor November 4.

for getting out of your house-work."

Louise had smiled at him quite unperturbed. She refused to argue with him about the matter.

She had come home late in August after a summer in Provincetown. With a beautiful and becoming tan she had acquired a poise, a self-assurance that baffled her husband. She was only sorry that she couldn't tell Harry about that wonderful summer.

She had registered at an art school with a great deal of trepidation, sure that she was too old to go back to lessons, fearful that the other students would hold her up to ridicule for presuming at her age to compete with rising young artists.

The class had met in the mornings in an old barn up on a hill. To the surprise of Louise, entering timidly on the first day, there were several gray-headed men busily setting up their easels and one or two women who looked to be much older than she was.

She began to feel more assurance. When the model took her place on the platform and Louise began squeezing out colors on her palette, her heart was so filled with a joyous excitement that her hand trembled as she reached for a brush.

Far from laughing at her, the other students looked at her work respectfully and even asked her advice upon occasion.

The summer had agreed with the children, too, she thought, as she took off her paint-smeared smock and tidied up the studio. Ted had loved his summer at camp and it had done him a world of good. And Eleanor had gotten a job and had gone off to business every day with her father, feeling very important and pleased to be earning $8 a week. The house-keeper Louise had engaged was capable, efficient and kindly. Louise had asked her to stay on after she returned from the Cape.

Yes, it had all worked out very well for everybody except Harry. He had not been happy at all about the arrangements. Louise had made them without consulting him. And yet he had no real reason to complain now. She was always home when he returned from work. And he certainly could not accuse her of neglecting the children. They were having a very happy family life, she considered. She would, of course, drop her painting at once if she thought it was necessary for the well-being of her children.

She put the kettle on the gas ring and got out the tea things. The children liked to have tea at the studio occasionally. Today she had persuaded Harry to stop in on his way home from work. It would be fun to hear what they thought of the portrait of little Adele Miller.

She arranged on a plate the cakes she had bought on her way to the studio. Then while waiting for the kettle to boil she picked up a book. The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam that Ted was always quoting. One stanza pleased her so much:

"A book of verses underneath the bough,
A loaf of bread, a jug of wine,
And thou
Beside me, singing in the wilderness—

Ah, wilderness were paradise enow,"

Louise let the book lie in her lap.

THAT'S it, she nodded her

The kettle was boiling furiously. She got up to turn down the gas, and then Harry opened the door and looked in.

As if he expected to find somebody here, Louise thought. Probably that was why he hated the studio. Harry had heard such wild stories about artists.

TWO HOURS OF THRILLS & FUN

What really happens when the kids go back?

SCHOOL BUS

What about transportation?

How about health measures?

Fall brings a thousand questions that must be answered.

Will the kids be all right? What about new teachers? Traffic conditions around the school? Lunches? Transportation? School Board rulings? Health precautions?

To find the answers you turn to your newspaper — naturally! Because the newspaper has the kind of information you're looking for.

Facts about everything! Facts about schools . . . the state . . . the town . . . the world. Facts about features, fun, and back-to-school bargains in the stores downtown.

Facts you can carry in your pocket — to read whenever you choose . . . wherever you choose. All the facts — so that you can read as much as you choose.

That's why nearly everybody reads the newspaper nearly every day.

That's why so many people who sell advertised products insist that they be advertised in newspapers.

Because in newspapers an advertising message has a chance to reach all people who can buy. Not just sports fans or quiz fans or music fans or comedy fans . . . but everybody.

That's why all advertisers — both "national" and retail — invest more money in newspapers than in any other form of advertising.

The newspaper is first with the most news . . . first with the most people . . . first with most advertisers.

The newspaper is always "first with the most"

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS

Noon Wins Top Picture Award

A marine study at dusk won for Richard Noon, Escanaba, the grand prize at the State Fair's photography exhibition.

Noon's compelling photo study was judged the best of all entries. Second grand prize was awarded to Mrs. Myrtle Middlin of Iron Mountain. Mrs. Middlin also took first, second and third prizes in the hand painted class.

William Puckelwartz of Escanaba took the blue ribbon in portraits while second and third prizes went to E. A. Kjarlie of Kingsford. Puckelwartz also had the best entry in landscapes. Second and third places went to Charles Middlin of Iron Mountain.

Judged best in the marine class was Margaret Kranstover's photograph. She is a member of the Escanaba Camera Club along with Puckelwartz and Noon, whose photos were judged second and third in the marine class.

William Marble of Gladstone was awarded the top open class prize with Kranstover and Noon second and third.

Mrs. Mildred Keaton of Munising was judge.

4-H DAIRY CATTLE JUDGING was a long and hard job for H. E. Dennison who had to select the best specimens out of a record field of dairy cows of top quality. Judging was completed early Thursday afternoon before the parade of the ribbon-winning cattle in front of the grandstand. Thursday, 4-H Day, concluded with a banquet in honor of the hundreds of 4-H youngsters showing their cattle at the Fair. (Daily Press Photo)

Dollar Bay Woman Wins Car On Red Benson Show

One of the new attractions at the U. P. State Fair this year, the Mutual quiz program "Take a Number" emceed by Red Benson, really paid off this morning for the women picked as contestants.

The show began a little late this cold but bright morning before an enthusiastic but small audience. As Benson commented, "a little later in the day would have seen more Escanabans out. Perhaps they are listening to it on the radio?"

Displaying the charm that makes him a popular quiz master, Benson immediately won the attention of his audience with his pre-broadcast chatter. Using Bill Clark of Escanaba at the organ as his musical background, Benson introduced his program director, Bill Monroe, and Bill's pretty redheaded wife, Mary Ashforth, formerly on the Chesterfield Supper Club. Mary is now the assistant director.

Benson showed none of the temperament that is usually associated with the hair that gives him his name. He lauded the Escanaba weather which to a grandstand liberally sprinkled with visitors seemed like slight overstatement.

Woman Wins Car
Contestants were chosen from the audience immediately before broadcast time. A tape recording was made of the show and it will be rebroadcast on Mutual stations next Thursday, Aug. 28.

It was a woman's world up on the stage once the show began. All appeared unruffled and could parry Red Benson's verbal thrusts as well as any professional actor. A curly haired nurse, Miss Mary Lou Salani of Hancock, was the first to try her luck at picking a number to win the prize and the chance for another. Clothes were her gift on two successful tries.

Next came the little blonde housewife who really hit the jackpot. Mrs. Wallace Engman of Dollar Bay picked the secret number that brought with it the chance for a brand new car.

She looked thoughtfully at the bright blue finish and answered "A public sale where goods are bought and sold... an auction?" In the confusion that followed, she could only say, "Oh, my!" There is only one little trouble, she can't drive; "but my husband can," she concluded brightly. Almost anti-climactically, she proceeded to win some new pots and pans.

Guest Awards, Too
Mrs. Tyne Anderson of Negaunee couldn't remember that Michigan had more salt mines than Utah, and there went her chance.

The closest to an Escanaba contestant was the calm "housewife" as she called herself, Miss Mary Rukola of Rock. But she didn't know what penguins were called in Latin.

Back again came Mrs. Engman who came the closest to the jackpot number with her last choice on the board. She lost out, though and happily went off to reassure her self that the car was actually hers.

After the show was officially over, there were guest awards to the people whose numbers were drawn out of the admission ticket box. From deep fat fryers to pearls to door chimes—the audience got their share.

Mine Union Suggests Top Officials Kick In Salaries On Holiday

SHELANDOAH, Pa. (P)—A United Mine Workers union local wants John L. Lewis and other UMW officials to turn over their salaries during the UMW's "memorial" work holiday to the union's health and welfare fund.

Referring to the holiday which starts next week for the nation's coal miners, the local stated in a letter to Lewis that "we can't even collect unemployment compensation, thanks to our leaders who have blocked every avenue of income."

The letter also demanded that "the local unions have a say in their own affairs." In requesting that union officials turn over their salaries, the letter pointed out that the union members must continue to pay dues during the holiday.

Missing Vegetables Traced To Kid Pirates On Housatonic River

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (P)—No more will the little "pirate" band sail the Housatonic River after booty.

Their jolly roger was hauled down today by landlubbers—with police. And blame it all on informers.

The "informers" were residents of Wachuset street, who wondered where their vegetables were disappearing to.

Police posted a guard on the gardens and this is what he saw last night:

Minesweeper Hit Twice Off Korea

TOKYO (P)—Communist shore guns Wednesday scored their second hit of the Korean War on the U. S. destroyer minesweeper Thompson, the Navy said today. Four crewmen were killed and nine wounded.

The Navy said the Thompson was hit the first time on June 14, 1951, by the same coastal batteries at Songjin, Northeast Korea. Three crewmen were killed and four wounded in that shelling.

The Thompson continued to fire on the shore installations Wednesday after one large shell hit its flying bridge and several others fell nearby. It transferred its casualties to the battleship Iowa.

Other Allied ships hit twice in the Korean War are the heavy cruiser Helena, the auxiliary minesweeper Osprey and the British destroyer Cockade.

Midwest Cools Off But Scorching Heat Continues In Texas

By The Associated Press
Cool air from Canada tumbled temperatures 10 to 20 degrees early Friday in the Missouri Valley region, but for most of Texas it was the same story — no relief from the heat and drought.

The mercury headed for the 100-degree mark again in parts of Texas for the 21st consecutive day. Five more heat deaths were reported in Texas yesterday. The long drought is burning out crops and pastures.

Scattered thundershowers occurred from New England southward over the Middle Atlantic states. Showers also were reported in the Ohio River Valley, Northern New Mexico and portions of Colorado.

Skies were generally fair elsewhere.

Indian Man Claims He Can Call Fish

SULLIVAN, Ind. (P)—Byrd Squire says when he stands on the bank of his pond and calls, "fishie, fishie," catfish assemble by hundreds as close to him as they can get.

Charles Brown, Sullivan newspaperman vouches for the claim. He says he and more than a hundred other persons have watched Squire's fish-calling act at random spots around the pond.

Squire, hoisting engineer for a coal mine, says it's easy. "I never lie to them. I feed them every time I call them."

First Aid From TV Saves Life Of Boy

DALLAS (P)—A woman who saved a boy's life from drowning credited television with teaching her artificial respiration.

Johnny Shuler, 10, was pulled from a swimming pool in the yard of Mrs. C. B. Hasford by Diana Stephens, 14.

Mrs. Hasford administered artificial respiration and the boy was breathing again by the time firemen arrived. "I hadn't ever studied it," she said, "just saw it on television a time or two."

Dallas Wives Sweep Water On Dry Lawns

DALLAS (P)—Quick-witted housewives wielding brooms beat the drought yesterday — temporarily, at least.

A utility company crew drilled into a water main and water rushed into a boulevard.

But did all of the precious water go to waste? Not on your lawn.

Neighborhood housewives grabbed brooms and briskly swept water from the street onto parched lawns.

WAR-CRIMINAL PAROLE

TOKYO (P)—The Japanese cabinet has decided to seek parole of 240 Japanese war criminals of World War II who have served at least one-third of their sentences. Foreign Minister Katsuo Okazaki was instructed to seek the consent of Allied powers for their release.

White Horse Troupe

Heavyweight teams, including the present championship team of Fowler Brothers of Reading, Michigan, will be in competition as the the grandstand feature Saturday afternoon, starting at 1:30 o'clock. As in the past, the contest director will be Harry Moxley of Michigan State College.

A change of program is on schedule for the night attraction with the famed White Horse troupe presenting the grandstand show. This troupe of trained Albino horses and lovely riding girls is one of the outstanding outdoor attractions in the country.

The Avery revue will conclude its four day stay at the fair this evening, with the final presentation of the colorful stage show, "Continental Varieties."

Sunday will be a big day to climax the Upper Peninsula State Fair. Stock car races with Upper Peninsula drivers will be featured in the afternoon in a program that promises plenty of thrills and excitement. The evening feature will be the Musical Master Varieties of Iron Mountain, a colorful musical group.

North India Province To Ditch Maharajahs, Elect Chief Of State

NEW DELHI, India (P)—Kashmir is ditching its hereditary maharajahs for an elected chief of state to govern the disputed North Indian land.

The Indian radio announced yesterday that Kashmir's Constituent Assembly had unanimously adopted a resolution ending hereditary rule by the family of its maharajah, Sir Hari Singh.

The maharajah's son, 21-year-old Yuvraj Karan Singh, is considered the leading prospect for Kashmir's first chief of state. Yuvraj, however, appears reluctant to step in and the maharajah, now living in Bombay, opposes his son assuming the post.

The maharajah, a Hindu, acceded his predominantly Moslem state to India after the 1947 partition of the sub-continent which created India and Pakistan. Irregular border fighting developed and Indian and Pakistani forces each seized parts of the state.

A U. N.-sponsored truce was established but the dispute still is pending in the international organization.

Newest Antibiotic Combats Diarrhea

NEW YORK (P)—A pharmaceutical company has announced development of a new antibiotic combination it says brings a high cure rate in infectious diarrhea of infants and children.

The product is known as neobacin, a combination of neomycin and bacitracin.

The company, C. S. C. Pharmaceuticals, a division of the Commercial Solvents Corp. said yesterday that the combination had been given in hospital tests to children ranging in age from five days to four years.

The announcement said diarrhea subsided quickly and fever soon disappeared when neobacin was given.

Tropical Sea Shells Washed Up On Shore Of Lake At Charlevoix

CHARLEVOIX (P)—No one in this northern Michigan resort town was able today to explain how tropical sea shells got into Lake Michigan.

Hundreds of them washed ashore along more than a quarter of a mile of beach yesterday.

Park Keeper W. H. Supernaw said he collected a bushel of shells ranging in size from an inch up to six inches. Several sightseers shoveled up seashells for souvenirs.

Wall Street

By RADAR WINGET
NEW YORK (P)—Prices hovered around dead-center today in the stock market.

Activity was limited all the way around with the volume at a rate near yesterday's extremely low 800,000 shares.

Higher prices were paid for Sears Roebuck, Caterpillar Tractor, Admiral Corp., Dome Mines, Eastman Kodak, Santa Fe, and Johns-Manville. Lower were Douglas Aircraft, Southern California Edison, Dow Chemical, American Tobacco and United Air Lines.

A feature of early trading today was the movement of 25,000 of Eastern Air Lines off 3/8 at 23.

Stocks on the curb exchange were mostly higher in active areas. Moving up were Barry Biscuit, Crystal Oil, Goldfield Consolidated, International Petroleum, Mesabi Iron and Thiokol.

Corporate bonds were narrowly mixed. U. S. Governments in the over the counter market were quiet.

Sugger Beats Detroit Nurse

DETROIT (P)—A nurse was slugged at the rear of her home as she returned from her hospital job early today.

Another thug beat and robbed a man at about the same hour.

The nurse, Miss Elizabeth Stova, 27, employed at Providence Hospital, said a masked man jumped from the bushes in the back yard at her home in Highland Park.

She said the man struck her four or five times. He was about 19 years old, she said.

Miss Stova's screams attracted a policeman, John Bazy, who was walking his beat. Bazy fired one shot as Miss Stova's assailant fled in a car which had been parked in the alley.

Miss Stova was treated for head injuries.

About 9 a. m. Ralph Burnette, a trucking company employee, was slugged from behind by a man hiding in the back seat of his car. Burnette said he was knocked unconscious and that when he came to about two hours later his wallet containing $600 was gone.

Submarine Saves $600,000 Blimp

KEY WEST, Fla. (P)—Navy men are still talking about the time a submarine towed a disabled blimp to safety.

It happened 40 miles south of here July 10-11. The rescue took 22 hours and 30 minutes.

Lt. Arthur E. Powell, 29, of Tewksbury, Mass., was pilot for 10-man crew aboard the blimp taking part in a training maneuver with the submarine Sea Poacher.

Propeller Bent
Powell said they were flying "very, very low" in a realistic attack on the submarine when the blimp struck the ocean and came up a few feet. The propeller blades were twisted at the tips.

"If we kept those engines running," he said, "one of those props might have snapped loose and struck into the bag and collapsed it. I decided to turn them off."

Below, the submarine saw what had happened and radioed for aid from the Boca Chica Naval Air Station, nine miles north of Key West. Navy planes, blimps, destroyer escorts and air-sea rescue boats were sent to the scene.

Meanwhile the blimp drifted down almost to the ocean's surface near the sub and a cable was attached.

Line Breaks
The strange tow encountered squalls on the way in. Rain and wind slammed the blimp. It was pulled to within four miles of Boca Chica by night fall, but the sub couldn't go any closer because of sharp coral reefs.

An air-sea rescue boat took over but the line attached from the boat to the blimp broke. The small boat raced after the line as the blimp lifted and finally caught it.

At daybreak sailors brought the line ashore and pulled the blimp to the base.

Powell said the strange rescue saved the taxpayers about $600,000.

Concessions Director Of State Fair Fired

DETROIT (P)—The Board of Managers has fired Jack R. Franke, 33, as concessions director of the State Fair, claiming he was uncooperative and lacked diplomacy.

Franke had admitted accepting whiskey from space buyers but he told the board, "there was no special gain to me."

The Fair Board dismissed Franke by a unanimous vote yesterday. Fair Manager James Harnum recommended William Farnum, a board member, as Franke's replacement.

Mink Girl's Best Friend, Designer Bette Yokova Says

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Mink is a girl's best friend, says Bette Yokova, who designs fabulous furs for the upper crust.

Bette, blonde, blue-eyed and be-guiling, claims a mink coat can make a glamor girl out of a wall-flower, a femme fatale out of a mousy wife and a success out of a failure. She explains:

"A mink coat is psychological. When a woman puts one on, she changes her personality to match. She lives up to it. You can see her changing before your eyes."

PERPETUAL VOWS — Sister M. Joellen, C. S. A., who recently professed her perpetual vows at St. Agnes Chapel in Fond du Lac, Wis., is the former Rita Monica Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Flynn of 700 S. 10th St.

Social-Club

Honored at Shower

Mrs. Paul O'Neil of Pontiac was the guest of honor at a pink and blue shower held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Leo La-Crosse, 215 N. 15th St.

Flowers formed the centerpiece for the party lunch served after a program of social diversions. Mrs. O'Neil was presented with lovely gifts.

Guests were Mesdames John Greis, Jr., Clem Sharkey, Lester Ness, Arthur Messier Jr., Ray Olson, Lowell Riopelle, William Hermes, Lester Noel, Ronald McDonough, Pat McDonough, Joseph Vogel and John McDonough and Misses Marilyn Nicholson, Mary Miron and Dolores Marmalick.

Pick Your Style

Choose a style that is flattering to you, she adds.

"Be sure the coat is correctly proportioned. If you're small, don't bury yourself in a coat with out-size collar and cuffs. If you have a big bust, stay away from full sleeves. If you're short, don't choose a coat with the skins worked on horizontal lines. And be sure the color of the fur is flattering to your skin and hair."

"Today the wide range of mutations makes it possible to get a mink coat to match any color of hair, from blonde to red-head, from jet black to silver."

The blood vessels of an adult human have a combined length of about 100,000 miles.

Sister M. Joellen, Former Rita Flynn, Professes Vows

Sister M. Joellen, C. S. A., the former Rita Monica Flynn of this city, professed her perpetual vows in the Congregation of Saint Agnes at ceremonies held recently at St. Agnes Chapel in Fond du Lac, Wis.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Flynn Sr. of 700 S. 10th St., Escanaba, and two aunts, Miss Rose V. Foley of Monroe and Mrs. John R. Pfau of Oshkosh attended the ceremonies. Assisting at the rites was a cousin, the Rev. Robert K. Finnegan of St. Norbert's Abbey.

Her brothers, Tobey J. Flynn of WBBM, Chicago, Attorney William P. Flynn Jr., of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, Los Angeles and Anthony F. Flynn, director of sports of WGPB, Green Bay, were unable to be at the services.

Sister Joellen attended St. Mary's Springs Academy in Fond du Lac and finished her senior year at St. Joseph High School in Escanaba. She will teach in St. Mary's Junior High School in Oshkosh this coming year.

Pictures Of The Day For Saturday By Untrained Artists

Art department entries at the Fair chosen for Saturday display as "Pictures of the Day" are both oil paintings. They are scenes done by Floyd Hicks and by Bernard Sikkila, both untrained artists.

"Farm Scene," by Floyd Hicks, is a large oil of a farm scene. It is dominated by a large red barn, surrounded by a wealth of detail. After studying this picture, the observer senses the love of the farm felt by the artist, as well as his knowledge and understanding of the subject. These are prime requisites to good painting. Mr. Hicks is a resident of Ironwood Township.

"His Mother's Home" is a tenderly painted picture by Bernard Sikkila, a young man from L'Anse. It is of a white house in the snow, with nearby trees and buildings. All are done with rather subtle tones and fine shadows.

These two pictures show the talent found in outlying places in the Upper Peninsula and that this talent is finding its way to the public through the Fair.

AS WE LIVE

Give Your Husband Readjustment Period

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.

Going into the service is a difficult form of adjustment for most men to make. And coming back to civilian life is difficult again. One of the big problems of adjustment is the attachments for other people they acquired while away from home. How a wife meets these is the problem facing the wife who wrote:

(Q) "My husband returned from service a month ago. The first day he was home, he spent with me. Then, the second day, he went out in the evening and didn't come back for four days. Then he told me he had fallen in love with a girl while he was in camp and had lived with her for eight months. He even wore a ring to make things look good. After a week or two of his staying out late, I left him. I'm with my parents and he's with his. I have seen him on the street twice but he doesn't want to talk. I know he is seeing other women. Do you think I'll be better off without him, as I have no children? I just can't seem to forget him."

(A) It takes a man a long time to get adjusted to civilian life after being in the service. This affair he has been having with another woman is going to be one aspect of his adjustment that will be very difficult for him. Surely he cannot live with her and pretend he is her husband in his home town as he did when he was in the service.

She may be just a passing fancy, a plaything for his army days. If so, he will not want to marry her. Don't consider giving him a divorce or even a legal separation for at least a year. Let him have time to get used to civilian life again and decide what he wants to do with his future.

Then, if it becomes apparent that he has lost his love for you, that there is no hope for a reconciliation, and that he wants to marry her, there is nothing for you to do but give him his freedom. Make sure, however, that you are properly provided for.

New Toys Are Out Of This World

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE

If a recent preview of new toys is any indication, your child will be playing with space toys, walking dolls and hobby craft playthings that are out of this world.

More than 500 American-made playthings, representing the best efforts of over 300 different manufacturers were on display. Each toy had been evaluated by the Toy Guidance educational staff, headed by Professor Emma D. Sheehy of Columbia University's Teachers College, for its safety, durability and ability to contribute to a child's growth and development.

Supplanting such fads as military toys, which enjoyed popularity from 1940 to 1946, and the demand for western equipment and character name play things which resulted from TV's growth since 1946, the current TV, movie and news reports of rocket travel, has "blasted" space toys into the forefront.

This year Junior will enjoy science-fiction toys which include rocket guns shooting rubber darts, a flying saucer gun, a space suit complete with a radio antenna hat and magic glasses with one-way lenses, interplanetary space phones, jet planes firing streams of water simultaneously out of jet guns, a space water pistol, a space port with rocket launcher and a space rocket ship which can be constructed from erector set parts. Model-craft boxes holding plastic molds from which children can make space models colored to suit themselves are also on display.

Walking dolls, a trial innovation last year, have definitely arrived. The preview included a wide variety of models, each of which actually walks without mechanical winding. In addition, each doll's hair can be washed, combed and waved. Many of the dolls have "magic flesh" and movable eyes that cannot be pushed out.

Juvenile furniture and doll accessories feature a double decker bunk bed for dolls, a doll carrying case and a new military doll house for boys called "GI Joe Barracks."

According to Dr. Sheehy, the things to remember in selecting toys for the various age groups are the following:

For infants — up to one year: Select toys that are non-toxic, cleanable, too big to swallow, smooth-edged, light and easy to grasp.

For toddlers — 1 to 2 years: Select toys that aid muscular growth, are safe, cleanable, develop manipulative skill and allow imaginative play.

For pre-school age—2 to 4½ years: Select toys that inspire creative play, aid physical growth, are fun outdoors and permit achievement.

For early childhood — 5 to 7 years: Give toys that permit physical exercise, require initiative, promote constructive interests, allow group play.

For intermediate childhood — 7½ to 9 years: Get toys that stir constructive interests, provide physical exercise, stimulate dramatic play, encourage group activities.

For advanced childhood — 10 years on: Give toys that develop practical skills, encourage creative talent, arouse scientific interests, and train in sports.

Carlton Henry Plant Expands

Installation of new machinery and an expansion of operations are announced by Carlton Henry, owner and manager of the Northland Woods Products Company, located in a leased building at the county fairgrounds.

To man the new equipment and carry out expanded operations the company's crew has been increased to 30 men, Henry said. Ten additional men will probably be added within 30 days.

New equipment installed include another new planer, bringing the firm's total to three; a new shaper; four new swing and table saws, an addition to eight already in operation; and two blowers and a dust collector system.

Also added is a second tractor-trailer transportation unit to haul the company's output of furniture frames to Chicago factories.

Future improvements planned include a system of conveyors to move raw material from machines to an assembly line, Henry stated.

A new department devoted exclusively to the production of small wood items from previous waste material also is being developed.

Northland Wood Products was acquired by Henry almost five years ago and his first productive efforts were directed toward construction of pre-built homes. Two and one-half years ago he changed his product, starting to build furniture frames for Chicago factories manufacturing furniture for mail order houses.

Units hauling Northland products to Chicago return loaded with finished furniture which Henry handles here on a wholesale-retail basis.

The Northland payroll is averaging about $40,000 annually, and his lumber purchases run about $4,000 monthly. Bulk of his lumber is bought from the Hancock Lumber Company, of Manistique. The plant uses all types of hardwood lumber in addition to hemlock and basswood.

Socialist Chief Schumacher Dies

BONN, Germany (AP)—The strongest foe of West German rearmament and alignment with the West, Socialist chief Dr. Kurt Schumacher, died here Friday night. He was 36.

The fervent leader—second only to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer as a political force in postwar Germany—succumbed to a blood circulation ailment. A cripple with only one arm and one leg, he had been failing ever since his health was ruined in Nazi concentration camps.

Quiet, soft-spoken Socialist Party Vice Chairman Erich Ollenhauer is slated to inherit Schumacher's party leadership. Ollenhauer is expected, however, to keep pushing the Socialists on the same nationalistic course opposed to communism on the one hand and European federalism and common defense on the other.

Pro-Amateur Tourney Slated

A pro-amateur golf tournament with entries expected from at least eight Upper Peninsula communities will be held Sunday at the nine-hole Indian Lake course, it is announced.

Trophies will include 50 merchandise prizes for blind holes, poker hands and other special playing features. A team trophy, donated by the State Savings Bank, also will be presented. Prizes for pro winners will be given in cash.

A noon luncheon and an evening banquet are scheduled.

Clubs may send as many teams as they desire, and a club pro may play on any team entered by his club.

Mother Stabs 3 Children; Takes Fatal Poison Dose

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (P)—A young woman doctor stabbed her 3-year-old daughter to death, wounded her two other children, and then sought to end her own life with poison early Thursday.

Detective Lt. J. R. Bowles said Dr. Norma Holt, 27-year-old pediatrician, stabbed her young daughter Vickie through her heart with a needle-sharp pair of scissors, killing her instantly.

She then turned on Ann, 4, and jabbed the scissors into the child's breast. Next, said Bowles, the young mother inflicted a serious stomach wound upon her 11-month-old son Larry.

Bowles said the mother, the wife of Dr. L. Beverly Holt, 33, an eye specialist, had recently been under the care of a psychiatrist.

Dorothy Anderson New Women's Champion At Escanaba Golf Club

Dorothy Anderson parlayed long, beautiful woods and a radar-like putter to the 1952 Escanaba Golf Club women's championship yesterday afternoon by defeating Elaine Rose 2 and 1 in a gale-swept title match.

For the new Escanaba Club champion it was the fifth straight club championship cup in an unbeaten stretch of tournament play that began in Cadillac, Mich., in 1948. She won the Cadillac Club championship two years running, topped top honors in the Highland Club title tourney in 1950 and 1951 and added the Escanaba crown yesterday.

The runnerup made a valiant bid midway in the second nine but ran out of holes after halving the 17th. Four down on the 14th after missing a four foot put, Rose dropped a four-footer to halve the hole, leaving her four down and four to go.

On the 15th Rose dropped another four-footer and she took the 16th when Anderson's putter failed on a 12-inch push. The two golfers matched strokes on the 17th and the battle was over as Rose was down two.

The strong wind made tee shots and woods difficult but Anderson kept her ball straight and long consistently. Rose went two up after the first three holes but Anderson rallied to even it up on No. 7 and took 8 and 9 to finish the first round with a two-hole margin.

Irene Hogan beat Ruth Owen in the consolation of the championship flight in a close match and Marge LeMire defeated Jean Smith 2 up in the beaten four. Ruth Needham won the beaten two match.

Needham, last year's champion, presented the title trophy and prizes to flight winners at the awards dinner last night.

Add Third Game Sunday Night

A third game has been added to Sunday night's Upper Peninsula Class A championship softball program at Memorial Field. Hosking-Harvey of Iron Mountain, Region five runnerup to the Escanaba Dells, will play a nightcap game against the runnerup of Region six.

The tripleheader will open at 7 with Bietila & Harvey of Ishpeming facing Marquette Piffers for the Region five crown and the right to face the Dells for the U. P. title. Both teams in the championship game will represent the U. P. in the downstate tournament next week.

The championship game will go on at 8:15. The loser of the first game will play Hosking-Harvey in the nightcap at 9:30.

Marquette will probably throw Tom Kirby against Ishpeming's Allan Wakkuri in the opener. Fans will no doubt see Steve Vugrin, former Escanaba Harnischfeger hurler, in action against the Dells' John Pierpon if Marquette wins the first game.

Both the hurlers worked with Harnischfeger's champion team last season and a considerable mound rivalry is expected when they tangle on opposing mounds.

Perkins At Cooks In Makeup Game Sunday

One makeup game in Bay de Noc League play was announced today for Sunday's slate of action. It will send Perkins to Cooks in a morning clash.

Highlight of the weekend is Sunday's battle between the two top teams, Manistique and Trenary, at the Trenary diamond.

In other games Cooks will be at Rapid River, Garden at Cornell and Perkins at Fayette.

Middlecoff And Kroll Lead Fort Wayne Open

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP)—Cary Middlecoff of Memphis and Ted Kroll of New Hartford, N. Y., led a sizzling field of par breakers yesterday in the Fort Wayne Open golf tournament.

Forty players, bettered par in the first round.

Middlecoff was maintaining his current hot streak that began when he beat Kroll in the Motor City Open playoff at Detroit last month. He and Kroll were low scorers yesterday with 6-under par 66s.

Kiwanis Wins Little League Championship

Kiwanis captured the 1952 Escanaba Jaycee Little League championship last night by coming from behind to beat Rotary 3-2 at Memorial Field diamond.

Rotary got off to a 2-0 lead when Ken Hamilton reached first on an error, Jim Bourdeau walked, Jim Allen singled in Hamilton and Anderson drove in Bourdeau with a fielder's choice—all in the first inning.

Gene Seguin was on the mound for Kiwanis and had the bases loaded again in the second inning when Bob Stropich came to his rescue.

In the bottom of the second Katrinski opened with a clean single to left field, moved to second on a passed ball and scored on a single by Mike Mileski. Mileski took second on the play at the plate, stole third and scored on an overthrow at third to tie the score 2-2.

Mammy Bourdeau on the Rotary hill lost his control momentarily in the third and filled the bases. Mileski came through with his second straight hit to drive in what proved to be the winning run.

In the sixth the first two Rotes got on but Stropich bore down to strike out the next three batters. In 5 1-3 innings Stropich walked only one batter and didn't allow a hit. Bourdeau fanned nine, walked four and gave up three safeties.

Mileski was the big gun for Kiwanis. He hit two for two, drove in two runs and scored the third.

Youngsters' Tourney At Escanaba Links

The junior golf program conducted for the first time at Escanaba Golf Club by Pro Eddie Ernst will be climaxed with a special party tournament for the youngsters on Aug. 29.

In charge of the tournament is Mrs. Madalyn Boyce.

Youngsters have been attending a weekly golf clinic under Ernst's direction since early this summer.

Barks And Bears At Home Sunday

Jack Chriske, undefeated Escanaba Bear righthander, will be shooting for his ninth straight mound victory Sunday when Escanaba entertains Perronville at the city diamond.

The winningest pitcher in the Tri County circuit, Joe Rademacher of Bark River, also gets the nod to start in the Barks' home stand Sunday against Wilson. Rademacher has won all 11 games in the Bark River victory column this season.

Following Sunday's games the Tri County loop has only one more weekend of play before the championship Shaughnessy system playoffs begin.

Both Escanaba and Bark River have cinched playoff berths. Other contenders for top division spots are Stephenson, Wallace, Perronville, Foster City and Felch. Almost all teams have makeup games pending.

Wilson, Bark River's foe Sunday, has yet to win a Tri County outing this season.

Perronville has a record of eight wins against six defeats.

Layne Still Key In Lion Attack

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Despite all the praises sung about his competitors for the quarter-back position, Bobby Layne will trigger the Detroit Lions' four-gun attack this fall.

Layne will start in Saturday night's exhibition game against the Philadelphia Eagles at nearby Little Rock.

And only an injury will prevent him from starting in the National Football League opener Sept. 27. The blond Texan was a controversial figure last year.

By many fans he was blamed—unjustly so, says Coach Buddy Parker—for the Lions' slump in mid-season.

At the time Parker had no capable substitute for Layne.

But this season Parker has added two sparkling passers, rookie Tom Dublinski of Utah and Jim Hardy, formerly of the Chicago Cardinals.

Perhaps they're both the passing equals of Layne.

But as yet neither compares with the fiery Layne in leadership—and nothing means more in a clutch touchdown drive.

The game starts at 9 p. m., EST and will broadcast over WJR, Detroit, and 15 Michigan stations.

Yesterday's Stars

Batting, Hank Sauer, Cubs—Smashed two three-run homers, his 32nd and 33rd of the season, to lead Chicago to 8-6 triumph over New York in first game of doubleheader.

Pitching, Wilmer Vinegar, Bend Mizell, Cardinals—Turned in seventh straight victory in pitching St. Louis to 3-2 victory over Boston.

Shooters from practically every state in the union, Alaska, Canada, the Canal Zone, Cuba and Hawaii are in the fight for the $1,500 first prize and untold thousands in the optional wagering at the premier event of the 53rd Grand American.

In 52 years no man has been able to win the 100-target classic twice and no woman has ever triumphed. But it has been won by a 14-year-old boy and a 70-year-old man, farmers, locomotive engineers, highway workers, garage mechanics, fur trappers and oil men.

Last year Mike Wayland, 18-year-old Washington, Kans., high school student, shooting in the first squad in a field of 1,682, fired a 99 which grabbed off the big prize.

E. G. Beckey, 45-year-old plant engineer of Rock Falls, Ill., won a five-way shootout to take yesterday's preliminary and thereby probably wrecked all his chances to capture today's classes. Only one man, R. R. Barber of Paulina, Ia., has even won the two big features, and he did it back in 1905.

Since 1800 West Virginia has produced five billion tons of coal.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Iron Mountain, another of Escanaba High School's grid foes this fall, has a hefty turnout of 60 candidates working under Coach Omer Lajeunesse. Nine of them are lettermen, and five of them are regulars from last year's squad. The Mountaineers, who tripped Escanaba last season at Iron Mountain, invade the Eskyo gridiron October 11.

Escanaba no doubt has the most elaborate and efficient baseball program of any city in the Upper Peninsula. The crack of bat meeting ball and the high-pitched chatter of keyed-up infielders are common sounds in this city. But when it comes to football, Menominee takes the top prize for organization. The Menominee Grade School Football League starts practice this week and opens the season Sept. 10. Teams compete until Oct. 15 when the league championship game will be staged.

Speaking of Menominee, Jim Ripley of the Herald Leader reports that baseball interest there is at a new low. "Fate of baseball in Menominee—once the most rabid baseball town in these parts—has been dropped into the laps of the fans and public spirited citizens whose generosity in the next 10 days will determine whether the national pastime will survive here," Rip says. It's the same picture all over the country. Baseball on the minor league scale is having a tough time making a go of it.

Stock car racing promoters hope to have a quarter-mile oval at State Fair park this summer or early next year, an official spokesman told us recently. The stocks normally do not run on such a large track as the half-mile oval at the fairgrounds. When the new track is installed it will front the grandstand and cut sharply into the infield in a gradual turn short of the far stretch and come back near the edge of the platform stage in a quarter-mile circle.

Tourney Of Champions Openers Set Tonight

Two games tonight and three games Saturday night will lay the groundwork for the second annual Tournament of Champions championship game Sunday afternoon at Memorial Field.

The tournament gets under way at 7 this evening when defending champion Carney Blackhaws take on the No Names of Escanaba. In the nightcap at 8:30 Kipling faces Power & Light.

On Saturday night Phil & Ev's will meet the Mehrman Plumbers, last year's runnerup.

White Birch, champions of the Escanaba American League, drew a first round bye and enter action Saturday night at 8:15 against the winner of the Kipling-Power & Light game.

The windup Saturday night at 9:15 will bring together the No Names-Carney and Phil & Ev's-Mehrmans winners.

A championship and runnerup trophy will be awarded Sunday afternoon.

Chick Harbert Returns To Michigan Open Golf

SPT—CHICK HARBERT

PONTIAC (AP)—Nearly 200 of the state's top tee artists will get the 1952 Michigan Open golf tournament underway at Indianwood Golf Club near Lake Orion today.

Most of the attention of golfers and spectators alike will be concentrated on Chick Harbert, the big man with the booming drive.

Baseball Briefs

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A former member of the Detroit Tigers in 1904 and credited with helping develop the famous Frank Home Run Baker, Thomas Llewellyn Red Owens died at a hospital here yesterday. He was 77.

BOSTON (AP)—Hoot Evers' sixth inning circuit clout off Cleveland's Steve Gromek yesterday was the seventh consecutive game in which he has driven one or more runs.

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite his team's three straight victories over the New York Yankees, Manager Paul Richards of the Chicago White Sox still believes the faltering world champions should win the American League pennant. Said he:

"The Yankees have the strongest lineup. Besides they've got the confidence and experience of champions. They don't tighten in the crucial games."

Well might the other contestants scrutinize the Detroit ball-blaster, who is returning to the Open after a three-year layoff. For Harbert has in the past always been at top form for the tournament.

All-Time Record

Competing in 1948, Chick not only won the tournament but set an all-time Michigan Open record with a blistering 23-under-par total of 265 for 72 holes over Detroit's Tam O'Shanter layout. On the final round Harbert burned up the course record with a 65 to win the tourney by a 10-stroke margin.

The affable Chick, who is sometimes erratic, won the 1942 Open crown by nine strokes at Meadowbrook, now his home club.

And back in 1937 as an amateur, Chick got hot and blasted the opposition with an 18-stroke edge, setting a course record of 268 at Jackson Arbor Hills.

Defending Champ

Other topnotch golfers like defending champion John Barnum of Grand Rapids, Wally Burkemo of Franklin Hills, the redoubtable Al Watrous, Horton Smith and Max Evans of Detroit will also have their eyes on the prize money.

The field of 189 contestants will battle it out for 72 holes of 18-18-36 during the three-day tournament over the 61900-yard layout, one of the toughest in the state.

The tournament will wind up Sunday with the field sliced to 60 golfers.

NEW CHAMPION—Dorothy Anderson, left, became the new Escanaba Golf Club women's champion yesterday when she defeated Elaine Rose 2 and 1. It was the second straight year as runnerup for Elaine Rose, right. Long straight woods and an accurate putter paid off for the 1952 champion who succeeds Ruth Needham as top woman golfer at Escanaba club. (Daily Press Photo)

Alice Dehlin Takes Women's Golf Crown

GLADSTONE—Alice Dehlin became Gladstone Golf Club's second three time women's champion yesterday by beating Sally Johnson 3 and 2 in the championship finals.

Dehlin had previously won club championships in 1944 and 1949. Only other club member to turn the trick three times is Agnes Erickson.

Alice's mother, Josie Dehlin, lost to Jane Empson in the beaten two of championship flight play which ended yesterday afternoon.

Dorothy Coulter, defending champion, was forced to forfeit in second round play when she was ordered to bed because of a bad cold.

In the first flight Fern Hall beat Katie Vandonsel 1 up and June Knutsen beat Bert Beaudry in the beaten two. Vi Goodman won consolation honors on a forfeit.

The awards banquet at the Gladstone clubhouse concluded the women's golf season.

Entry Deadline For Escanaba Golf Club Men's Tourney Soon

Deadline for qualifying scores in the Escanaba Golf Club men's championship tournament is Wednesday, Aug. 27. Pro Eddie Ernst today reminded prospective entrants.

Among the low qualifying scores turned in this week was a 71 by Tony Cass and Fred Pollak's 76 fired yesterday.

The tournament will be staged over Labor Day weekend, Aug. 29-30-31 and Sept. 1 with championship play winding up on Labor Day. Ernst emphasized today that it is important for all qualifiers to turn in scores as soon as possible so that flights may be drawn up.

Gene Woodling of the Yankees led four different minor leagues in batting.

Rocky's Hook Short And Sweet

AP Newsfeatures

NEW YORK—Next time you get a chance to see Rocky Marciano fight watch his left—if you can. It is one of the best in all boxing.

Though a natural right handed puncher, the Brockton, Mass., Block Buster has a lethal left. It's not much good as a jabbing maneuver, but as a hooker it's a knockout.

Has Force and Speed

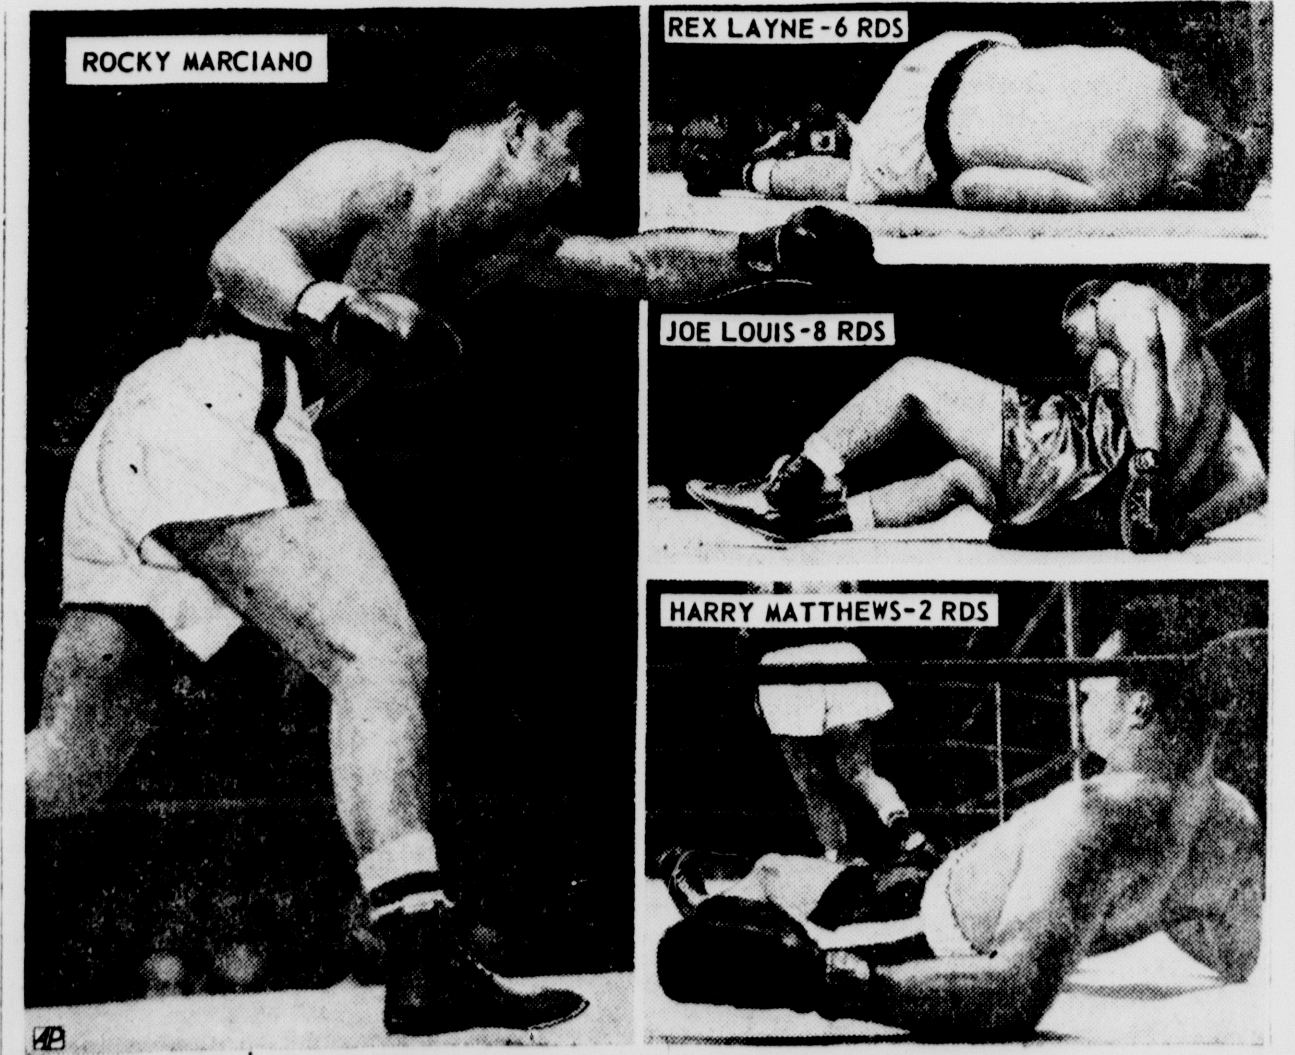

Experts agree that even Joe Louis, in his heyday, never had a better left hook than Marciano's. Rocky's left hook is thrown from in close. It travels about two or three feet. But it has that unbeatable combination—force and speed.

The undefeated son of a shoemaker began his rise to the position of No. 1 heavyweight contender hardly more than a year ago in Madison Square Garden. On July 13, 1951 he flattened Rex Layne, a young hopeful from the west, in six rounds. A right to the chin was the knockout punch, but Marciano's damaging left hook was the weapon that weakened his younger rival.

Marciano, who will be 28 on Sept. 1, flattened the comeback hopes of Joe Louis when he stopped and Brown Bomber in eight rounds in the Garden last October.

Hook Floored Louis

A right to the jaw knocked Louis through the ropes and the former champion was counted out. However, again it was the left hook that led to the sleep produer, for just prior to the knockout, Louis had been floored for a count of eight.

In Marciano's recent Yankee Stadium fight against Harry Matthews, two lightning left hooks flattened the coast boxer in the second round.

Marciano is crude as fighters go but it's a pleasure to watch him send that left hook out at shoulder level. His fights lack the glory sight of oldtime battles, for he seldom spills blood in the ring.

American League Lead At Stake

Indians At Yankee Stadium

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

A month ago the Cleveland Indians were pronounced dead as an American League pennant threat. Today, the Indians could well recall Mark Twain's famous quotation: "Rumors of my death are greatly exaggerated."

The Indians appeared to be knocked from contention on Black Tuesday July 22 as they dropped a doubleheader to the New York Yankees and fell 7½ games behind the Bombers.

Climb Back

But the Indians never entered the happy hunting grounds. Instead they climbed back into the thick of the race and today they invaded the Yankee Stadium for a two-game series with first place at stake.

Cleveland, trailing the Yanks by one game, could take over the lead by one percentage point by beating the Bombers in the series opener.

Big Make Garcia (15-8) has been nominated to face the Yanks' Allie Reynolds (15-7) in the first game. Early Wynn (16-10) is scheduled to go against New York's Vic Raschi (14-3) in the concluding game Saturday.

Showers are forecast for today and if the game is rained out the teams will clash in a doubleheader tomorrow. If both games are rained out the series will have to be played in Cleveland as this is the Indians' last visit to New York. The Yanks play the Tribe a single game in Cleveland Sept. 14. The next day is an open date for both clubs.

Garcia sports a 3-0 record against the Yanks and will be pitching with four days rest. Reynolds has won two out of five from Cleveland and will be starting his first game in five days.

Both the Indians and Yanks suffered defeats yesterday. The third place Boston Red Sox knocked off the Indians, 4-1, and the Chicago White Sox upset the Yanks, 6-1, to sweep a three-game series. Washington and St. Louis divided a two-night doubleheader, the Senators winning the first game, 3-2, and the Browns the second, 8-1.

In the National League, the Chicago Cubs impeded New York's pennant bid by splitting a doubleheader with the Giants, winning the first game, 8-6, but losing the second, 10-5. The Mexican standoff kept the Giants seven games behind front-running Brooklyn. The Dodgers' game with Pittsburgh was rained out. Philadelphia and Cincinnati were idle while in the circuit's only night game, St. Louis nipped Boston, 3-2, for its sixth straight victory.

Sid Hudson scattered seven hits in beating the Tribe's "spot pitcher," Steve Gromek. The Red Sox nipped Gromek for all of their eight hits and runs in seven innings.

Yanks Lose Third

The Yanks conserving their best pitchers for Cleveland, opened with a second liner for the third straight time and failed. Rookie Tom Gorman was beaten in the first inning and had no one to blame but himself.

Gorman walked home one run and his wild throw permitted two more White Sox players to score. The three runs were more than Billy Pierce required. The ace Chicago left-hander held the Yanks to five hits in gaining his first triumph in six attempts over the world champions.

Spec Shea turned in his 10th victory for the Senators in the first game at Washington. Shea allowed only five hits but was in trouble throughout because of nine walks. The game was held up an hour and 48 minutes in the fifth inning because of rain.

Big Hank Sauer smashed a pair of three-run homers to beat the Giants in the opener at Chicago. The Giants piled up a 6-0 lead but the Cubs scored twice in the fourth and then Sauer went to work. He hit his first homer off loser Larry Jansen in the fifth and then won the game with another three-run blast in the seventh off Hoyt Wilhelm. The homers boosted Sauer's output to 33 and increased his runs batted in to 106.

Garcia, Reynolds Get Big Hill Assignments

NEW YORK (AP)—Two of baseball's best "money pitchers," Mike Garcia and Allie Reynolds, toe the firing line today as the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians clash in the opener of a two-game series with first place in the American League at stake.

The Yanks, pace-setters since June 14, enjoy a one-game advantage over the pennant hungry Indians but would drop to second place by one percentage point by losing.

Garcia has been Cleveland's most successful pitcher in competition with the Yanks. The big bear, who has won 15 games and lost eight, has taken the world champions three times without a loss. Reynolds (15-7) has won two out of five decisions from Cleveland.

Both righthanders are well rested. Reynolds will be making his first start in five days. Garcia has pitched only 1-3 of an inning in relief the past four days.

In the event that the game is postponed because of rain the two contenders will play a doubleheader Saturday. Should both games be washed out, the games will have to be played on the Yanks' next visit to Cleveland as this is the Indians final appearance of the season in New York.

Doubles Champs In Action Today

By BUD WEEKS

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—Defending titlists Frank Sedgman and Ken McGregor of Australia resume action in defense of their national doubles crown on the Longwood Courts today after sitting out a day of competition which saw no major departure from form.

The Aussies, holders of the Eastern and Wimbledon Championships, meet Straight Clark of Pasadena, Calif., and Luis Ayala of Chile in one of staggered quarterfinal tests.

In the other men's quarterfinal Davis Cupper Herb Flam, Beverly Hills, Calif., and Frank Gormsey of Garden City, N. Y., take on the young Australian sensations Lewis Hoad and Ken Rosewall.

Youth vs. Experience

Yesterday's quarterfinal play in the other bracket was featured by a five-set tussle between veterans Gardnar Mulloy of Miami and Billy Talbot of New York and 18-year-olds Hamilton Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., and Bob Perry of Los Angeles. The veterans are top-seeded domestically with the teen-agers seeded fifth.

Mulloy and Talbot finally prevailed in the contest of youth versus experience, 3-6, 6-4, 9-7, 4-6, 6-4. Vic Seixas of Philadelphia—top-ranked American—and Australian Mervyn Rose gained the fourth quarterfinal berth with a straight sets triumph over a pair of 23-year-olds, Grant Golden of Chicago and Sidney Schwartz of Brooklyn, N. Y., 6-1, 7-5, 6-4.

A nother doubles combination that enjoyed an off day yesterday, thanks to the good weather which permits staggering of the matches, is that of Maureen (Little Mo) Connolly of San Diego, Calif., and Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Women's Play

That second-seeded tandem returns to the court today in a semi-final against Mrs. Nancy Chaffee Kiner of Palm Springs, Calif., and Mrs. Thelma Long of Australia.

The other half of the women's bracket was completed yesterday as defending champions Doris Hart of Coral Gables, Fla., and Shirley Fry of Akron, O., whipped Mrs. Katherine Winthrop McKean of Hamilton, Mass., and Mrs. Bab Lewis of Newton, Mass., 8-6, 6-2.

Two British stars, Helen Fletcher and Nancy Mortimer, captured the semi-final spot opposite the Hart-Fry team by an easy victory over Sachiko Kamo of Japan and Diane McIlvaine of New York, 6-4, 6-1.

Babe Ruth hit 50 or more home runs in four seasons—1920, '21, '27 and '28. That is a record that stands today.

RED SPARKS — It isn't Red Schoendienst's fault that the Cardinals are not closer. The St. Louis Nationals' Huckleberry Finn is playing plenty of second base and hitting right up there with Stanley Musial and Country Slaughter. (NEA Photo)

Redskins Lose Justice And Coach Dick Todd

By PETE ARTHUR

LOS ANGELES (AP)—This is the day the Washington Redskins start over. They lost another exhibition football game last night, but a couple of much more serious things happened to them.

They lost Charley (Choo-Choo) Justice, their offensive star, and their head coach, Dick Todd. Justice broke his wrist, and will be out from four to six weeks.

Officially, Todd quit to attend to his farming interests in Crowell, Tex. Unofficially, there was talk that he and the Redskins' owner, George Marshall, were at odds over the 35-0 beating from the San Francisco 49ers last Sunday.

Baugh Not Interested

Todd's announcement said he asked to be relieved before the world champion Los Angeles Rams hung a 45-23 licking on his team last night. The news came out moments after the final gun. Marshall said a successor will be picked today.

There were reports that the head man's job has been offered to aging Sammy Baugh, starting his 16th pro season. But Baugh told reporters he isn't interested.

Justice distinguished himself with one of the finest performances the Coliseum ever saw before he snapped his wrist. To the cheers of 87,582 fans he piled up 199 yards in 11 ball-carrying tries. Most of the yardage came on runs of 49, 53 and 63 yards, all starting deep in his own territory. Each time he looked to be in the clear, but the Rams' fleet defensive half, Herb Rich, ran him down.

Tried Straight-Arm

It was at the end of the 63-yard gallop, when Rich tossed him out of bounds, that his wrist snapped. Justice blamed himself.

"I tried to straight-arm Rich and I never should have done it. It was the first time I ever tried to do it in my whole football career."

The Rams Norman Van Brocklin tossed four touchdown passes, and set up a fifth score. Bob Waterfield set up the sixth tally with three passes, and booted a field goal and six conversions.

Aside from Justice's three long gallops, the game's biggest sensation was provided by a local boy, ex-Southern California halfback Johnny Williams who dropped a Ram kick-off, retrieved it and scooted 100-yards for a score.

Dodgers Beat Cubs For Title

The Dodgers, underdogs in the junior baseball playground championship, upset the applecart and handed the favored Cubs an 11-4 trimming in the finals Wednesday evening.

The two teams reached the finals through an elimination tournament held earlier in the week.

Jimmy Farrell, Dodger hurler, was the star of the evening. He allowed but two hits, gave up only 4 bases on balls and whiffed ten. It was his second thriller of the series for he set down the Delta Frames of Flat Rock Monday with only 4 hits.

Loose play marked the game on the part of the Cubs. Allan Hoskins, who started on the mound was relieved in the fourth after 6 runs were in. He had allowed but two hits, walked five and struck out five. Walter Houghton gave up five runs on four hits and was relieved by Jerry Jeander in the sixth who allowed one hit and struck out three to end the game.

The Dodgers will receive a trophy as city playground champions and the Cubs are to get a smaller trophy as runners-up.

The game ended the junior hardball play for the summer. Beverly Burt requests players on both teams to contact sponsors relative to their uniforms.

Women Know How To Make A Fuel Of Themselves

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK. (AP)—The reason women get more things done than men is that they know better how to make a fuel of themselves.

There is no fuel like an old fuel, and the oldest and best fuel isn't wood, coal or oil. It is anger—plain old inner anger.

Notice how a woman operates. If she has a distasteful job to do the first thing she does is get all steamed up about it. Let us suppose the chore her conscience tells her she should be doing is her semi-annual house-cleaning. A man faced with this task says, "I ought to tidy up this joint, and I will one of these days, but I feel awful tired today." And he doesn't get around to shoveling out the debris until it threatens to smother him.

Anger Creates Energy

But a woman says, "I hate the way this place looks." She is angry at it, the anger gives her energy, and soon the dust and furniture are flying. By the time her anger is worn out, she can collapse on a spick-and-span couch in a house that is shiny-bright.

That is why men are secretly afraid of women—because of the power of anger they have. Few obstacles can stand before the flaming energy of a wrathful lady at peak cry.

A wise man, however, can exercise some influence over a woman if he cunningly learns to channel her ire in the right direction.

A friend of mine worked this ruse successfully in getting his wife to pack her suitcase in time to catch a train for their vacation trip.

Old Whammy Works

He pulled out his watch and pointed at it. She dawdled. He pleaded. She dawdled. He begged. She yawned. Finally, he picked up one of her favorite dresses and said:

"Well I forbid you to take this along. It makes you look like Queen Victoria on a picnic."

"Oh, it does?" she snarled.

"I'll wear what I want to, smarty!"

In a tempestuous burst of energy she packed the suitcase, snapped it shut. They caught the train.

"As a matter of fact, she was so angry she wouldn't speak to me for a week—but is that altogether bad?" recalled the husband.

And, of course, it usually works the other way. A woman uses her anger to whammy a man into obeying her whim. Many a fellow is prodded into success in life only because of the long slow burn of his wife over the fact the husband next door is getting ahead faster. Her wrath feeds his will, and he rises in the world on borrowed fuel.

Vollwerth Picks Iron Mountain For Its Sausage Plant

IRON MOUNTAIN—Vollwerth and company, of Hancock, sausage manufacturers, which for the past 15 years has operated a branch plant here at 713 River avenue, today announced the purchase of the former Frick Bakery building, 116 West B street, from Ray and Donald Frickelton.

James Feira, manager of the Iron Mountain branch, said that an extensive remodeling program is planned for the Frick building before moving from the River avenue building owned by C. O. Anderson.

Increased Floor Space

Feira said it will be at least 60 days before remodeling is completed at the Frick building. He said between $10,000 and $20,000 will be spent in readying the new plant for occupancy.

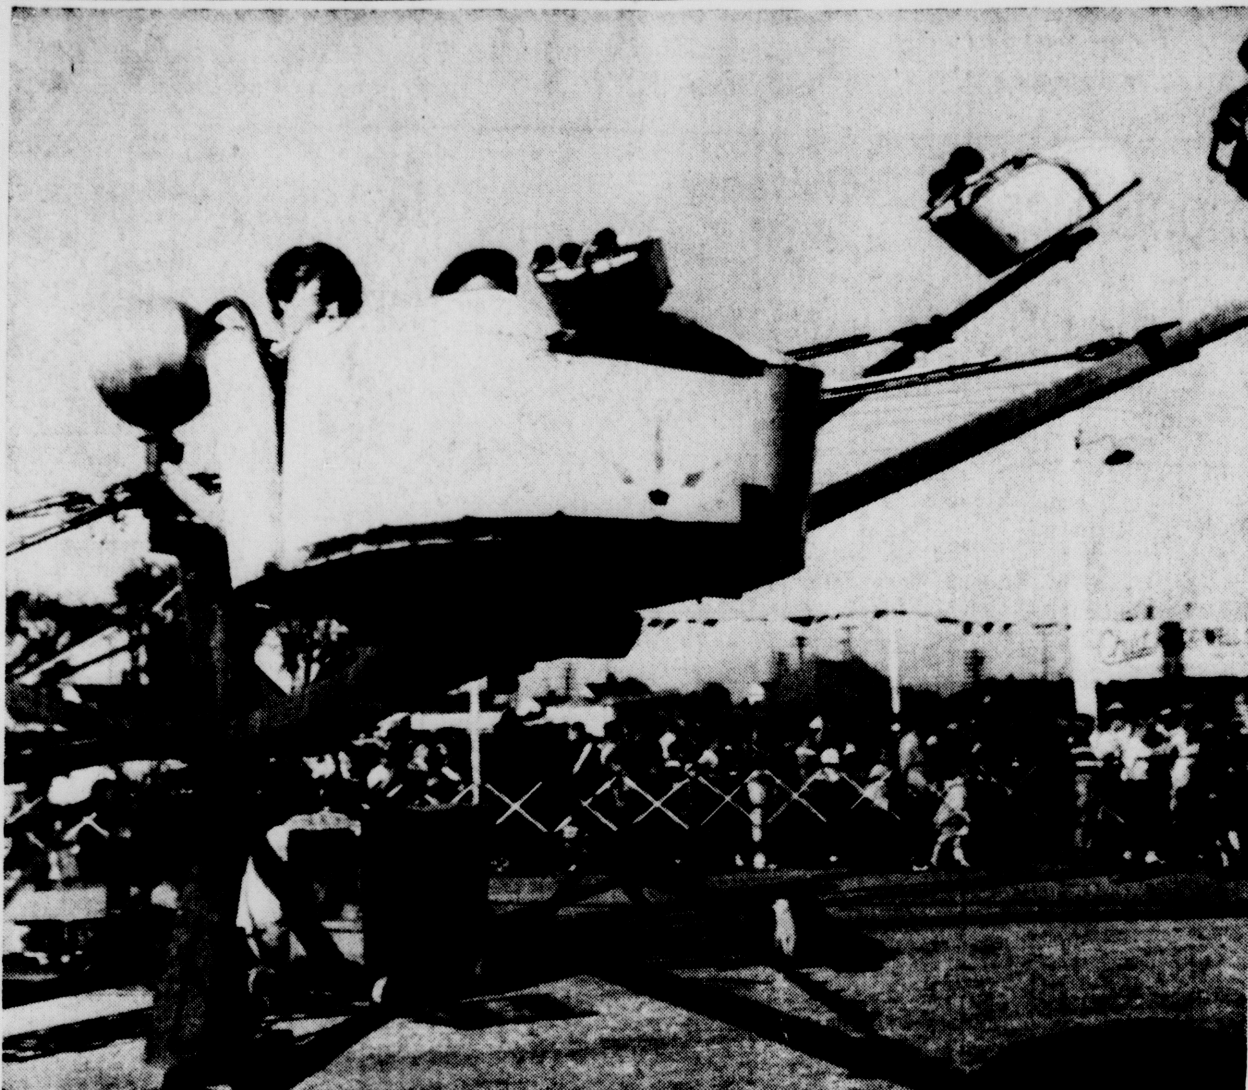

The new plant will provide about four times the amount of floor space available at the River avenue site. All new equipment—coolers, refrigerators and meat grinders—will be installed at the Frick building. The garage roof will be raised to accommodate the Vollwerth truck fleet, the interior will be completely renovated and the exterior will be finished in stucco.

Wholesalers in all makes of quality sausage, the Vollwerth company, through its expansion at the Frick building, will enlarge its distribution area out of Iron Mountain. Feira indicated that sausage-making on a limited scale here may be in the long-range plans of the company.

Vollwerth's fleet of four trucks distributes its products to Menominee, Gladstone, Escanaba, Iron River, Crystal Falls and the Felch area from the Iron Mountain branch.

The Vollwerth company sought permission to construct a sausage factory on N. 21st St. in Escanaba but was denied a permit because of zoning regulations.

The first stable for White House horses eventually became a school in 1821 for the poor children of Washington.

Betty Grable All Through Taking Studio Suspensions

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—After a year of self-imposed idleness, Betty Grable says she won't be taking any more studio suspensions.

The famous blonde is finishing up "The Farmer Takes a Wife" after a year off studio salary. I asked her if she'd ever take a suspension again.

"Never," she replied positively. "I wanted a rest and I got it. I've been particular about the kind of pictures I've been in. Now I'm ready for anything. If they want to shoot a remake of 'Smoky,' I'm their girl. I've been in the business too long to worry about parts."

The new blonde at 20th-Fox—Marilyn Monroe—has been cast in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." I asked Betty if she wanted the role.

"A lot of people said I should be in it, but there was only one reason—the title," she replied. "As far as the role is concerned, I wasn't enthused. I think Marilyn fits it perfectly, and it's good box office to team her with Jane Russell."

No picture has been announced for Betty, but she doesn't expect much time with her children and horses. "I can't believe they'll keep paying me that big salary and not keep me working," she remarked.

Stalin May Give Clue On His Successor At Party Congress Oct. 5

By JOHN A. SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—A solid clue pointing to Russia's next ruler may emerge from the full dress meeting of the Communist party congress in Moscow Oct. 5.

And American diplomats will not be surprised if tough, 50-year-old Georgi Malenkov steps up as Josef Stalin's personal choice as next Russian Prime Minister.

In fact, some suspect Stalin's aim in staging the whole affair may be to give a formal, open hint as to who the next boss should be.

Joe Looks Ahead

This may be Stalin's way, they believe, of lessening the possibility of a bloody struggle for power within the Communist high command after he dies.

Stalin's heir apparent will be the man who is chosen to be chairman of the new Praesidium, to be organized at the meeting to replace the Politburo.

The 12-man Politburo, now the top governing body, has no chairman or chief executive. But a Praesidium under the Russian set-up generally does have one.

Anyone picked for this job would automatically be proclaimed publicly as the most important Communist in Russia next to Stalin.

It is entirely possible that Stalin himself will be designated chairman of the new Praesidium. But, if so, why for the first time since 1925 is he not to give the main address to the congress, the report of the Central Committee?

Up From Ranks

This is a sort of state of the union speech summing up Communist stewardship of the Soviet Union since the last congress met. In this case it will cover a 13-year period and will be especially important.

Malenkov, a Communist party wheel who worked his way up from the ranks like Stalin, is now scheduled to give this report, the most important thing on the agenda.

Furthermore, neither Marshal

Beria, head of the Soviet secret police and Deputy Prime Minister Malenkov's main rival, nor Deputy Premier V. M. Molotov, is scheduled at this time to play any prominent role in the congress party session. This may be a clue that Molotov is being pushed into the background, since he read the new five-year plan at each of the two previous congress meetings, in 1934 and 1939.

Molotov is 62 and his age has been considered a factor against him in speculation on Stalin's successor.

Weight of massive objects too heavy to be weighed by ordinary devices now is being determined with electronic crane scales, which utilize a resistance wire strain gage, an electrical current, and an electronic indicator.
